

Super Spas

WE HAVE COME UP WITH A NEW MANTRA FOR BUSINESS TRAVELERS: WORK HARD, RELAX HARD.

When planning a corporate event or meeting, “relaxation” may not be the first word to pop into mind. But why not allow attendees the option to kick back with a massage, pedicure or facial after a long day of meetings? Southern California offers some of the most impressive resort spas in the country and most of them offer group packages so delegates can even relax together, if they so desire. With the beautiful surroundings, it’s no wonder these spas all offer outdoor services, so guests can truly take advantage of the great locales.

OCEAN PEARL SPA AT THE SHERATON CARLSBAD RESORT AND SPA

Relax and refresh at the luxurious, boutique spa at the Sheraton Carlsbad Resort. The Ocean Pearl Spa specializes in organic skincare, along with massage and body treatments. They offer something for everybody, including a personalized massage that is tailored to each individual and their unique therapeutic needs. The Ocean Pearl Spa has a variety of facials to choose from, and they realize that skin care is important to both women and men. The Men’s Facial provides deep pore cleansing, exfoliation and hydration to balance skin affected by the elements and shaving. Taking a cue from the nearby Pacific Ocean, the spa offers body treatments with a focus on the therapeutic properties of water. The Ocean Essence Exfoliation is a full-body sea salt exfoliation that will leave the skin soft and the body energized. Or try the Coastal Waters Body Masque, where hand-harvested ocean mud, rockweed and seaweed are layered on the body for optimum absorption of vitamins and minerals. Seaweed and mud may not be super fun to swim in, but at the Ocean Pearl Spa, guests will gain a whole new camaraderie with the gunk of the Pacific.
